

2.5 Step 4: Track Admission Status

Picture 11-1 Successfully Sent: You will reach Pic 2-3, once your application has been successfully sent to the university you applied for. Then, click “Track Admission Status” to see the status of your admission.

The screenshot shows the SICAS application tracking interface. On the left, a sidebar lists application sections with checkboxes indicating completion status. The 'Track Admission Status' option is circled in blue. The main content area shows a progress bar with four steps: 1. Review, 2. Select Payment Method, 3. Payment Confirmed, and 4. Send to University. A red box highlights a message box that reads: 'Sending Status: Already sent'. Below this, a table lists the sections and their status.

Sections	Status	Action

Picture 11-2 Processing: Once you reach Pic 3-1, you will see that your admission status is “Processing” which means that the university is processing your application and you will get the result within 1-3 weeks generally. You can refer to the square on the bottom of the page to know the different phases of admission status.

Application Form
Personal Details	Complete
Application Material:	complete
Payment Status :	Confirmed

SICAS Tips: Please be aware that you may not have to go through all phases.

Picture 11-3 Refused: If the status becomes “Refused”, this means that the university you applied for cannot accept your application. Then, SICAS suggests that you try another course or university. Click “Course Search” or School Search” and re-begin the application process.

The screenshot shows the SICAS 'Track Admission Status' page for an applicant. The status is 'Refused'. A yellow callout box states: 'You don't have to complete your application procedure all at once. It can be partially completed on SICAS, i.e., you can continue it later in My SICAS > My Applications.' The 'Refused' message says: 'Sorry, the university doesn't accept your application. Please click Course Search or School Search to apply for another course on SICAS. The Words from University: We are sorry to inform you that we can not accept u coz your record is so bad. Pls apply for other university. Thanks' A red circle highlights the 'Refused' status, and another red circle highlights the 'Course Search or School Search' link. The 'Details' section shows: Application Form: Complete, Application Material: complete, Payment Status: Confirmed. A 'Send' button is also visible at the bottom of the message area.

Picture 11-4 Pending: If the status becomes “Pending”, this means that the university has check your application documents, but they need to be revised according to the university’s request. This may be due to that the application form you provided or the materials you uploaded are incomplete or incorrect. Please make the revision or re-upload materials according to the university’s request by clicking the corresponding sections on the left menu. Once you finish, SICAS suggests that you explain what you have revised in the text box, then click “Send”.

The screenshot shows the SICAS 'Track Admission Status' page for an applicant. The status is 'Pending'. A yellow callout box states: 'You don't have to complete your application procedure all at once. It can be partially completed on SICAS, i.e., you can continue it later in My SICAS > My Applications.' The 'Pending' message says: 'The university has checked your application documents, but they need to be revised according to the university's request. The words from University: Your application form is incomplete or incorrect somewhere, please revise it.' A red circle highlights the 'Pending' status, and another red circle highlights the 'Send' button. The 'Details' section shows: Application Form: Complete, Application Material: complete, Payment Status: Confirmed. A text box for 'Your Words to University:' is present with a 'Send' button below it.

Picture 11-5 Accepted--Waiting your admission letter: If the status becomes “Accepted”, there will be three conditions. Firstly, your track admission status will state:

Accepted

The university has already accepted your application and will upload your admission letter once it is ready. Please check in due time and reply to the university whether you accept it.

The screenshot shows the SICAS 'Track Admission Status' page for a user. The status is 'Accepted'. The details section shows 'Application Form: Complete', 'Application Material: complete', and 'Payment Status: Confirmed'. A yellow box highlights the 'Accepted' status and provides instructions: 'You don't have to complete your application procedure all at once. It can be partially completed on SICAS, i.e., you can continue it later in My SICAS > My Applications.' Another yellow box explains the 'Accepted' status: 'The university has accepted you and will upload your Admission letter once it is ready. Please check in due time and reply to them whether you accept it.' A third yellow box provides a key for 'Accepted' status: 'Accepted: The university has accepted you and will upload your Admission letter once it is ready, please check in due time and reply to the university if you accept it, then the university will upload your JW 202 form, visa versa.' The 'Details' section shows 'Application Form: Complete', 'Application Material: complete', and 'Payment Status: Confirmed'. A yellow box at the bottom explains the 'Accepted' status: 'Accepted: The university has accepted you and will upload your Admission letter once it is ready, please check in due time and reply to the university if you accept it, then the university will upload your JW 202 form, visa versa. Pending: The university have checked your application documents, but they need to be revised according to the university's request. Refused: Sorry, the university can't accept your application. Posting: The university has posted your original Admission Letter and JW202 by courier to you. If you have any difficulty, please contact service@sicas.cn.'

The screenshot shows an 'ADMISSION NOTICE FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' from the College of International Education, China University of Petroleum (Huadong). The notice is addressed to Mr. TIMOTHY LOUIS MUSINGUZI. It states that the university has decided to enroll him as a Bachelor's Degree student in the program of Petroleum Engineering taught in English from September 2013 to July 2017. The notice includes instructions for the student to apply for a student visa (X visa) to the Chinese Embassy or Consulate in his country with this Admission Notice, the original copies of his Visa Application for Study in China (JW202), Foreigner Physical Examination Form and his blood test report. It also mentions that the student must register with these materials at the China University of Petroleum (Huadong) between September 9th and September 13th, 2013. The notice includes contact information for the College of International Education and a note that the student must obtain an X visa, prepare 8 passport-size photos, and register at the university within 24 hours after arrival in China.

SICAS Tips: You must reply to the university whether you accept your admission, so that the university can upload your visa form (JW202) in your SICAS account and post it together with your original admission letter to the designated address you have filed in your SICAS account. Therefore, you should check and confirm that your address and telephone number that you filled in “Declaration” are correct.
