

Wenzhou University English Language and Literature Master Program English Instruction

Title: English Language and Literature, Taught in English, 3 years

Degree Awarded: Master of Literature

Institute: College of Humanities

Profile:

The English Language program engages in the formal study of the structures of language and the qualitative study of language in its social context. Our students gain familiarity with the questions and methodologies, learning about language, the most distinctive of human activities, and about how to understand it. We have research strengths in both kinds of study. Alongside work on philology and syntax, we have people studying language and gender, language policy, language acquisition and English in non- English speaking countries. Our main strengths are language contact and English.
